

CBS TELEVISION NETWORK
PUBLIC AFFAIRS BROADCASTS
JANUARY 1998 - p. 1 of 6

FACE THE NATION

- 01/04/98
- 1) Interview with Treasury Secretary Stanley Rubin about:
 - a) projected budget surplus in 2002/pressure for tax cuts
 - b) issues to be addressed in the State of the Union message: Medicare; Social Security
 - c) the impact of fluctuations of the Asian market
 - 2) The Unabomber Trial:
 - a) the defense's offer of a guilty plea in return for life imprisonment
 - b) the issue of Ted Kaczynski's mental illness
 - 3) The Real Deal: polling by Hollywood to see what movie audiences want
- Guests:
- Robert Rubin, Secretary of the Treasury (1)
Peter Arenella, Professor, UCLA (2)
Robert Graysmith, author (2)
- 01/11/98
- 1) President Clinton's plan to expand Medicare to include people under 65: pros and cons
 - 2) The issue of partial-birth abortion
 - 3) Interview with Health and Human Services Secretary Donna Shalala about: proposed expansion of Medicare; human cloning
 - 4) The Real Deal: the Paula Jones sexual harassment case
 - 5) Interview with Dr. Thomas Murray about government regulation of human cloning
- Guests:
- Sen. Phil Gramm (R., Texas) (1, 2)
Sen. Christopher Dodd (D., Connecticut) (1)
Donna Shalala, Secretary, Health and Human Services Department (3)
Dr. Thomas Murray, Bioethics Advisory Committee (5)
- 01/18/98
- 1) Interview with Jim Fisher, Paula Jones' attorney, about:
 - a) allegations of sexual misconduct on the part of President Clinton before and after his election to the Presidency
 - b) Ms. Jones demand for a settlement and an apology in her sexual harassment suit
 - c) Ms. Jones' decision to donate money from a possible settlement to charity
 - 2) The situation in Iraq:
 - a) Saddam Hussein's refusal to admit UN inspectors
 - b) the option of military intervention
 - 3) President Clinton's upcoming meetings with Israeli Prime Minister Netanyahu and PLO Chairman Arafat
 - 4) The impact of the Pope's visit to Cuba
- Guests:
- Jim Fisher, Paula Jones' attorney (1)
Richard Butler, Chief UN Arms Inspector (2)
Sen. John McCain (R., Arizona) (2)
Samuel Berger, White House National Security Adviser (2,3,4)
- 01/25/98
- 1) Interview with William Ginsburg, attorney for Monica Lewinsky about his client's request for immunity
 - 2) Interview with Jim Fisher, Paula Jones' attorney about establishing a pattern of behavior for President Clinton
 - 3) Legal perspective on charges against President Clinton:
 - 4) Interview with Rahm Emanuel about recent allegations involving the President
- Guests:
- William Ginsburg, attorney for Monica Lewinsky (1)
Jim Fisher, attorney for Paula Jones (2)
Rep. Henry Hyde (R., Illinois) (3)
Joseph diGenova, former U.S. Attorney (3)
Rahm Emanuel, Senior White House Adviser (4)

60 MINUTES

- 01/04/98 "An Honest Mistake"- Major Donald "Grey" Lowry, a highly decorated Air Force pilot, was killed in a routine training mission, because the flight controls on his F-15 had been accidentally reversed. Two Air Force mechanics, TSgts. Turner Campbell and Thomas Mueller were charged with negligent homicide. Critics, including the mother of the dead pilot, claim that Campbell and Mueller, who committed suicide, were made scapegoats by the Air Force which was aware of the problem but failed to correct it (C: Steve Kroft - P: Richard Greenberg)
"Bobby McFerrin"- an interview with the pop vocalist/jazz musician. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Paul & Holly Fine)
"The Best Doctors in America"- eleven years ago doctors told author Greg Smith that he had inoperable brain cancer and had only three months to live. Smith and his partner Steve Naifeh, began a research project which ultimately led to their books, "Best Doctors," regional guides to the nation's most capable physicians. Now "Best Doctors" has added a research service providing help to individual patients (C: Morley Safer - Paul & Holly Fine)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Reference Books"- statistics on various states
- 01/11/98 "Ted Kaczynski's Family"- the accused Unabomber's family talks about his early years and gradual transition into an eccentric loner. Includes a report on evidence that led David Kaczynski to turn his brother into the FBI and the family's hope that Ted's life would be spared (C: Mike Wallace, Lesley Stahl - P: Robert Anderson, Victoria Gordon, Michael Rosenbaum) (Edited version of "Ted Kaczynski's Family" Parts I & II OAD: 09/15/96)
"The Family Business"- an interview with Francisco Ordenez, 23-three year-old bullfighter whose grandfather was acknowledged to be the greatest matador of the century and whose father was gored to death by a bull. Francisco decided to follow in the family tradition in defiance of both his mother and grandfather's wishes (C: Bob Simon -P: Michael Gavshon)
"Stephanie's Law"- a report on the controversy surrounding Stephanie's Law which was passed in Kansas in 1994. Under the terms of the law sex offenders who have completed their sentences can be kept in prison until a court decides it is safe to release them. Proponents of the law claim that sex offenders have a high propensity to re-offend, while critics charge that it is unfair to imprison someone after their sentence has expired. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Ruth Streeter)
Andy Rooney Topic: "TV in the News"- the age of 60 MINUTES' audience; David Brinkley is doing commercials
- 01/18/98 "Massacre In Algeria"- within the last six years 80 thousand Algerians, including men, women and children, have been massacred by unidentified terrorists. The Algerian Government claims that Islamic fanatics are responsible for the wave of barbarism but so far has done little to stop it and has rejected the suggestion of an independent investigation by foreign observers including the UN. (C: Christiane Amanpour - P: Scott Bronstein)
"The Deadly Trade In Fake Medicine"- a report on people in developing countries who are being harmed or killed because of the distribution of fake or substandard medication. Agencies including the governments of western nations, the pharmaceutical industry and even the WHO (World Health Organization) have failed to stop the deadly trade. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Walt Bogdanich)
"Here Come the Girls"- a profile of Girls Choir of Harlem, the latest offering of The Choir Academy of Harlem, the New York City public school that produced the Boys Choir of Harlem and of Lorna Myers, the former operatic diva who leads them. (C: Morley Safer - P: Deirdre Naphin)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Differences"- individual preferences
- 01/25/98 PREEMPTION

PUBLIC EYE WITH BRYANT GUMBEL

- 01/07/98 "Investigation: Hidden Harvest" - there is no federal law requiring merchants to put labels on food indicating its origin. Problems arise when unsuspecting consumers become ill from ingesting produce grown under unsanitary conditions found often in Latin American countries, including Mexico (C: Michelle Gillen - WFOR-TV - Miami affiliate - P: Phil Eigner)
"We Remember Sonny Bono"- remembering entertainer/politician Sonny Bono who died in a skiing accident on Monday. Includes an interview with his former wife Susie Coelho (P: David Fitzpatrick)
"17 Days"- a report on the controversy surrounding the death, two years ago, of devout Scientologist Lisa McPherson. The Church of Scientology claims that her death was unexpected, while Church critics charge that McPherson should have been hospitalized during the 17 days prior to her death when she was held at a Scientology center. (C: Kristin Jeannette-Meyers - P: Bill McGowan)
Interviews - Holly Hanlin and Niki Deutchman, jurors in Terry Nichols' trial discuss how they reached their verdict (C: Bryant Gumbel)
- 01/14/98 "Fast Friends"- skiing rivals Picabo Street and Muffy Davis will be competing in the winter Olympics to be held in Nagano, Japan. Picabo is a favorite in the downhill while Muffy, who broke her spine in a skiing accident, will take part in the Paralympics for disabled athletes (C: Bryant Gumbel - P: Tom Forman)
"Just Say No"- John Rosemond, a family psychologist, writes a column appearing in more than 80 newspapers. Rosemond, who favors spanking, claims that parents in the '90s don't know how to impose discipline (C: Bernard Goldberg - P: Andrew Wolff)
"Seeing Double"- poll asking viewers which people in public life they would like to see cloned (C: Bryant Gumbel - P: Shari Levine)
"A Family Affair"- doctors told Lorie Townsend, a 25-year-old Pennsylvania woman suffering from cystic fibrosis, that a double lung transplant using live donors might save her life. Her entire family volunteered for the high-risk surgery. Unfortunately Lorie did not survive (C: Peter Van Sant - P: Liza Finley)
"Public Eye Opener"- reaction to the "dancing baby," the brainchild of computer animators, which can be accessed on the internet (C: Richard Schlesinger - P: Yvonne Miller)
- 01/21/98 "A Matter of Law"- Melissa Crowley, a South Carolina woman was charged with child abuse because she smoked crack cocaine while pregnant. Her attorney claims she cannot be imprisoned for harming part of her own body (C: Bernard Goldberg - P: Steve McCarthy)
"Old and Improved"- a report on marketing products to the baby boomer generation. Includes interviews with advertising executive Jerry Della Femina; author Walker Smith; and Monica Mitro of Victoria's Secret (C: Alison Stewart - P: Christopher Martin)
"At Your Own Risk"- many American college students see foreign studies programs as a unique learning opportunity. Problems arise when these students are placed in dangerous situations. (C: Derek McGinty - P: Andrew Wolff)
"The Next Stage"- singer/composer Paul Simon talks about his upcoming Broadway production, "The Capeman" (C: Bryant Gumbel - P: Phil Shimkin).
"Under Fire"- allegations concerning President Clinton's involvement with former White House intern Monica Lewinsky (C: Scott Pelley - P: Bill Owens)

PUBLIC EYE WITH BRYANT GUMBEL (continued)

01/28/98 "White House Under Fire"- update on allegations concerning President Clinton's involvement with former White House intern Monica Lewinsky. Includes interview with former Clinton advisor James Carville. (C: Bryant Gumbel, Scott Pelley - P: Bill McGowan)
"Avalanche!"- Christian George, survivor of an avalanche earlier this month in the Colorado mountains, discusses his ordeal (C: Maggie Cooper - P: Tom Forman)
"Golden Girl"- interview with Tara Lipinski, 15-year-old figure skating champion. (C: Bryant Gumbel - P: Liza Finley)
Women On Death Row- a report on the rarity of the death penalty being applied to women. Includes interviews with Gwen Garcia, a convicted murderer whose execution was halted 14 hours before she was scheduled to die, and Victor Streib, dean of the School of Law at Ohio Northern University. (C: Carol Marin - P: Don Moseley)
"Public Eye-Q Test"- who are more likely to believe President Clinton's denial on involvement with Monica Lewinsky -- men or women? (P: Christopher E. Martin)
"Isn't It Ironical?"- President Clinton has been perceived by women as being sensitive to their concerns and needs. Will the allegations questioning his personal morality and character affect this perception? (C: Bernard Goldberg - C: Steve McCarthy)

48 HOURS

01/01/98 "Remembering Michael"- reminiscences about Michael Kennedy, one of the eleven children of the late Senator Robert Kennedy who was killed yesterday in a skiing accident in Aspen, Colorado (C: Ed Bradley - P: Gail Zimmerman, Josh Yager, Alice Maggin, Avi Cohen)
"A Perfect Match"- Julianne Prudhomme, a little girl from Boise, Idaho was born with almost no digestive system and was in dire need of a rare five organ transplant to survive. Her parents' frantic search for a donor ended at Miami's Jackson Memorial Children's Hospital where a perfect match was found and surgery performed. Now, several months after this major surgery, viewers have the opportunity to see Julianne celebrate her first Christmas as a healthy child. (C: Susan Spencer - P: Katherine Davis) (Followup to "A Perfect Match" - OAD: 04/17/97)

01/08/98 "Jackpot"- for the past six years Roby, Texas endured a devastating drought that crippled the farming business while cattle prices plummeted, and the population dwindled. On Nov. 27, 1996 the town got the miracle it needed when 43 people won the $46 million Texas lottery. The report focuses on what happened to the winners including: Jack McClure, who was just about to declare bankruptcy; Peggy Dickson, who started the Lotto pool and later died of brain cancer; Jim Carson, the liquor store owner who sold the winning ticket; and Lance Green, who ran unsuccessfully for town Mayor and whose former wife demanded half of his winnings and has now accused him of sexually assaulting her 3-year-old daughter (C: Bill Lagattuta - P: Michael Maloy)

48 HOURS (continued)

- 01/15/98 "The Devil on Main Street"- 48 HOURS takes a look at the phenomenon of troubled teens dabbling in Satanism in small town America. The shootings by a self-professed Satanist teenager which resulted in the deaths of two people and the wounding of two others in Pearl, Mississippi and a recent spate of satanic-related suicides in Keokuk, Iowa are explored. Includes interviews with Dr. Bill Reisman, a consultant who has investigated satanism across the country; Professors Jack Levin and Arnie Arluke of Northwestern University; and Lt. Tobe Ivy of the Pearl Police Department (C: Harold Dow, Erin Moriarty - P: Brian O'Keefe, Abra Potkin, Anthony Batson, Jennifer Buksbaum)
"Mamma's Girls"- an interview with Patsy and Peggy Lynn, twin daughters of country music star Loretta Lynn who want to follow in their mother's footsteps (C: Troy Roberts - P: Paul LaRosa)
"48 Seconds With Bill Geist"- toys that didn't sell during the holiday season (C: Bill Geist - P: Richard Rosen)
- 01/22/98 Special Edition: "White House Under Fire"- focuses on allegations that President Clinton had an affair with Monica Lewinsky, a White House intern, that he lied about it and encouraged others to do so. Includes reports on: developments in the story; the press frenzy that has erupted; the reaction on Capitol Hill; a look back at the scandals that have plagued Clinton since the beginning of his presidency; the history of presidential sex scandals; what it means to take the Fifth Amendment and the possible grounds for impeachment; who are Monica Lewinsky and Linda Tripp; the reactions of Hilary and Chelsea Clinton; the scope and goals of Kenneth Starr's investigation. (C: Dan Rather, Scott Pelley, Diana Olick, Bob Schieffer, Erin Moriarty, Susan Spencer, Kristin Jeannette-Meyers, Harold Dow, Steve Kroft, Anthony Mason, Harry Smith - P: Katie Boyle, Katherine Davis, Clare Friedland, Loen Kelley, Paul La Rosa, Linda Martin, Mary Noonan Robichaux)
- 01/29/98 Special Edition: Class of 2000: "True or False: Teenagers Mean Trouble"- 48 HOURS follows the lives of four sophomores (Austin Hall, Jenny Gill, Rob Bullard and Josh Van Valkenburg) from Franklin High School, Nashville, Tennessee, over the fall semester. The program focuses on their real-life problems and situations, including drugs, friendships, getting a driver's license, family break-ups, and rejection. (C: Russ Mitchell - P: Maurice Murad, Virginia Somma). Also included is "White House Under Fire," a short segment about the latest developments in the allegations about President Clinton and former White House intern Monica Lewinsky. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Bill Owens, Mary Noonan Robichaux, Jay Young, Jennifer Buksbaum)

CBS NEWS SPECIAL

- 01/25/98 "Mike Wallace Remembers"- CBS News Correspondent Mike Wallace recalls the personal and professional highlights of his broadcasting career spanning six decades. The broadcast follows Wallace from the early days in radio and television to his current 60 MINUTES assignment. He talks about his childhood, his bouts with depression and the death in 1962 of his oldest son and includes footage of interviews from Wallace's 1950 "Night Beat" and "The Mike Wallace Interview" program with Hugh Hefner, Adam Clayton Powell and Salvatore Dali -- where Wallace originated his tough interviewing style. Also includes interviews with Wallace's wife Mary Yates, daughter Pauline Dora and son Chris Wallace as well as friends Art Buchwald, William F. Buckley, Nancy Reagan, William Styron and ABC newswoman Barbara Walters (P: Lee Cohen) (OAD: 09/11/97)

CBS NEWS SPECIAL REPORT

01/27/98 "State of the Union 1998"- live coverage of President Clinton's State of the Union Address to a joint session of Congress. Followed by a Republican response by Sen. Trent Lott (R., Mississippi) (C: Dan Rather, Bob Schieffer, Scott Pelley. CBS News Consultant: Doris Kearns Goodwin, Presidential Historian)

* * * *